DETAILED ACTION

The rejection under section 112, second paragraph is withdrawn in part, in view of Applicant's amendments:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 99 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 99 still has no steps.

The following is a new ground of rejection under this section, necessitated by Applicant's amendment:

The following compounds are listed twice in claim 120

Art Unit: 1621

The grounds of rejection under section 112, first paragraph are withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendment. The following are new grounds of rejection under this section, necessitated by Applicant's amendment:

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 98-120 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The compounds set forth in claim 120 do not find support in the specification. Accordingly, claims covering any associated compositions or methods of using/making also do not find support in the specification.

The outstanding prior art rejections are withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendments. Should the compounds in claim 120 find support in the specification, the following prior art rejection are now entered:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 100, 101, 116-120 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DATABASE CAPLUS CHEMICAL ABSTRACTS SERVICE, COLUMBUS, OHIO, US; Database Accession No. 1989:227959, Abstract of Rezanka et al., "Preparative separation of algal polar lipids and of individual molecular species by high-performance liquid chromatography and their identification by gas chromatography-mass spectrometry" in Journal of Chromatography (1989), 463(2), 397-408 (Rezanka).

Rezanka teaches the following compound:

The difference between the compound taught by Rezanka and the compound covered by claim 120 is that Rezanaka teaches an extra methylene group in the fatty acid chains. However, compounds with successive additions of methylene groups are deemed prima facie obvious, see MPEP 2144.09 ("Compounds which are position isomers (compounds having the same radicals in physically different positions on the same nucleus) or homologs (compounds differing regularly by the successive addition of the same chemical group, e.g., by -CH₂- groups) are generally of sufficiently close structural similarity that there is a presumed expectation that such compounds possess similar properties. In re Wilder, 563 F.2d 457, 195 USPQ 426 (CCPA 1977). See also In re May, 574 F.2d 1082, 197 USPQ 601 (CCPA 1978)").

Claim 100, 101, 116-120 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DATABASE CAPLUS CHEMICAL ABSTRACTS SERVICE, COLUMBUS, OHIO, US; Database Accession No. 1991:182027, Abstract of Liao et al., "Main fatty acids and triglyceride composition of kernel oil of Iodes vitiginea" in Zhiwu Xuebao (1990), 32(6), 473-6 (Liao).

Liao teaches the following compound:

The difference between the compound taught by Liao and the compound covered by claim 120 is that Liao teaches an extra methylene group in the fatty acid chains. However, compounds with successive additions of methylene groups are deemed prima facie obvious, see MPEP 2144.09 ("Compounds which are position isomers (compounds having the same radicals in physically different positions on the same nucleus) or homologs (compounds differing regularly by the successive addition of the same chemical group, e.g., by -CH₂- groups) are generally of sufficiently close structural similarity that there is a presumed expectation that such compounds possess similar properties. In re Wilder, 563 F.2d 457, 195 USPQ 426 (CCPA 1977). See also In re May, 574 F.2d 1082, 197 USPQ 601 (CCPA 1978)").

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
